

CGCA Needs you!

- Did you live in Covent Garden in the 70s and 80s?
- Did you take part in the demonstrations to save Covent Garden from demolition?
- Do you remember the Japanese Garden and the Community Garden?
- Do you remember the market before it moved to Nine Elms in 1974?

If so we want to hear from you!

The Covent Garden Community Association are looking for people to take part in an exciting project telling the story of Covent Garden from the view of the people who lived or worked in the area during 70s and 80s. Your stories will be recorded and added to the Covent Garden memories website www.coventgardenmemories.org.uk. Some stories will form part of a documentary being made by DigitalWorks and pupils from St Clement Danes.
